

Competition Guidelines

- Deadline for entries is November 30th 2010.
- There is no restriction on the number of entries that each school can send.
- Entries are limited to a maximum age category of 9 years old.
- When you send your entries, please include the following details:

School name

Name of individual child whose creation the entry belongs to (if applicable)

Age of child/children who completed the entry

Teachers' contact details

Teachers' contact number and email address

- Please send your entries to: National Schools' Fire Safety Week Competition, The Fire Fighters Charity, Belvedere, Basing View, Basingstoke, RG21 4HG.
- When creating your poem, you should think about the fire safety messages you have learnt.
- Be as creative as you like – there are no restrictions. Judges will be looking for creative entries, but also those that communicate the fire safety messages in a clear and easy to understand way.
- If sending visual content, please send it as a DVD or mini DVD. If creating audio footage, please send by MP3, or email your entries to awhite@firefighterscharity.org.uk.
- Photographic / written entries can also be sent to awhite@firefighterscharity.org.uk.
- The Fire Fighters Charity reserves the right to publicise the winning entries. This will include notifying the local media.
- We are happy to swap the £300 worth of vouchers for book or computing vouchers.
- The Neenaw Fire Fighter Experience Day will be a fun packed day for one school year class only (MAXIMUM 40 CHILDREN), and will be tailored to the winner's location. Mini Fire Crew uniforms will also be provided!
- Schools from which the winning (and runners up) entries come will be notified in writing via their school in the week beginning Monday 6th December 2010. The final results will be published on the National Schools' Fire Safety Week website in the week beginning 13th December. Winners will be required to take their prizes before the end of summer term 2011.
- The judge's decision is final.
- For any enquiries please email: awhite@firefighterscharity.org.uk.
